Belmont is a wonderful town to live in and to raise a family! Issues important to the future of our town include: identification of short-term goals as long-term needs are addressed. We must carefully manage future economic development, planning, and zoning that is in Belmont's best interest while bringing in much needed additional revenue to our town. I am also committed to maintaining the excellence of our school system.

Expected growth in IT and biotech, centered in Kendall Square, will bring more families with children to the region, placing continuing pressure on Belmont Schools. To maintain class size, and system quality more generally, the Town must be prepared for substantial capital expenses and the associated overrides. Effort needs to begin now to marshal support for the committees working on the needed investments, and the projects they will bring forward.

Belmont will continue to face difficult fiscal decisions in coming years, especially with regard to the replacement/renovation of town facilities and deferred maintenance on our sidewalks and roads. I would support the continued excellence of our public schools, while also advocating for prudent, sustainable improvements to our town-wide infrastructure, recreational facilities and parks.

ROBERT NEAL IMBERMAN

For Belmont to thrive, we must be able to solve long-term challenges strategically and short-term challenges with a sense of urgency. A major long-term challenge is how we can - sustainably - maintain healthy and high quality learning environments for our children despite increasing enrollment. In the short-term, I know many of our neighbors are concerned about traffic speeds in our neighborhood and risks to our residents.

HANNAH SMITH LIBERTY

43 Worcester Street

Belmont needs to work more efficiently and transparently to better serve the needs of all residents. I am excited for the prospect of an improved high school as a way to invest in the future of our schools. As a commuter, I also see the need for improved roads and safety for pedestrians, bicyclists, and motorists.

BENJAMIN JOEL MESHOUAM

54 Newton Street

I am a parent and social worker interested in continuing investments in high quality education for our students and supporting sustainable development. I would also like to support continuing improvements in recreational and community spaces that bring residents together and make Belmont a desirable town to live in and spend time, including our commercial districts and public resources such as our library.

ALISON M. RHODES

54 Newton Street

Belmont residents have come to expect high quality municipal services, including schools, recreational facilities, and infrastructure, but we need to find a way to continue growing our tax base so we can maintain these services. As a Town Meeting member from Precinct 7, I will help ensure that any development is respectful of the character of our neighborhoods and business districts, while generating much needed revenue.
